Dr. David Ramirez

CHIEF MEDICAL OFFICER, AHN

A board-certified internist, Dr. David Ramirez is the Chief Medical Officer at AltaMed Health Network, Inc. (AHN). In this role, he is helping AHN in its transition to value-based care while maintaining its mission of delivering high quality culturally-sensitive care.

Dr. Ramirez previously was Chief Medical Officer at CalOptima, the county organized health plan for Orange County, California. Prior to that he was Chief Quality Officer at CareMore, a Medicare Advantage plan and pioneer in value-based healthcare. He was also a Hospitalist and Medical Director in Austin, Texas with the Seton Family of Hospitals.

Dr. Ramirez graduated from Harvard Medical School, completed his residency training at Cedars Sinai Medical Center, and has been on the clinical faculty at the University of Southern California and the University of Texas.